SCHWERPUNKTE

Im Anschluss an die Kapitalerhöhung konzentrierte sich die Gesellschaft auf die Integration zuvor ermittelter Investitionsmöglichkeiten ins Portfolio. Im Verlauf des dritten Quartals tätigte die Gesellschaft zudem zwei neue Direktbeteiligungen. Infolgedessen ist der Investitionsgrad um 26 Prozentpunkte auf 76% gestiegen.

Die Ausschüttungen und Kapitalgewinne aus dem etablierten Private Equity-Portfolio überstiegen die Erwartungen. Den wichtigsten Beitrag zu dieser positiven Entwicklung leisteten der AIG Asian Opportunity Fund («AOF»), die Schroder Funds sowie der Cinven Fund II. Der AOF veräusserte die Beteiligung an Hansol an Korea Telecom. Der Cinven Fund II veräusserte die Beteiligung an General Healthcare, welche 42 private Akut-Pflege Spitäler und 11 psychiatrische Kliniken unterhält. Die Schroder Funds verkauften unter anderem die letzte Tranche an Charles Vögele, einem führenden Textildetailhändler der Schweiz und Ririlux SA, ein in der Schweiz ansässiger Hersteller qualitativ hochwertiger Reissverschlüsse. In einem der grösseren Fund-Commitments hatte ein Unternehmen Schwierigkeiten, das zur Fortsetzung seiner rasanten Wachstumsstrategie erforderliche Kapital zu beschaffen. Aus Sicht des Managements hat sich die Liquiditätskrise nachhaltig negativ auf das Unternehmen ausgewirkt. Daher wurde die Position vollständig abgeschrieben.

Im dritten Quartal tätigte die Gesellschaft zwei Direktinvestitionen: Universal Pictures Escape («UPE») und Advanced Medicine («AMI»). Zu UPE gehören zwei grössere Themenparks, die Universal Studios Florida und Islands of Adventure sowie ein Nightlife- und Restaurantkomplex. AMI ist ein gegenwärtig ausschliesslich in der Forschung tätiges biopharmazeutisches Unternehmen. AMI konzentriert sich auf die Veränderung bekannter Substanzen in den folgenden Nischenbereichen: postoperative Schmerzen, neuropathische Schmerzen, Asthma, bakterielle Infektionen und Inkontinenz.

Die Gesellschaft hat zudem Zahlungsverpflichtungen über 80 Millionen US-Dollar in 25 US- und westeuropäische Leverage Buyout- und Risikokapitalfonds abgegeben, welche bisher durch die AIG gehalten wurden. Rund ein Drittel dieses Betrages wurde bisher investiert. Zudem tätigte die Gesellschaft eine Zahlungsverpflichtung von 35 Mio. EUR in CapVest Equity Partners. Dieser Fonds stellt europäischen Firmen mit einem Unternehmenswert von Euro 50-500 Millionen Wachstumskapital zur Verfügung. Der Branchenfokus liegt bei Telekommunikation, Dienstleistungen und Freizeit. APEN übernahm des Weiteren eine Gründungsbeteiligung an einer Schweizer Beteiligungsgesellschaft, der A & A Venture. Deren Portfoliogesellschaften sind typischerweise Early-stage Unternehmen mit Fokus auf Europa und die folgenden Branchen: Kommunikation, Technologie und Life Sciences.

Der Innere Wert der Gesellschaft (unter Anwendung von Fair Values) stieg im dritten Quartal um 4.8% auf 136.90 CHF pro Aktie. Die Hauptgründe hierfür waren die gute Performance des etablierten Private Equity Fund-Portfolios sowie der starke US-Dollar. Der Aktienkurs von 164.00 CHF lag um 8.6% über dem Kurs zur Jahresmitte und um 31.2% über dem Ausgabekurs im Oktober 1999. Die Prämie betrug zum Quartalsende 19.8% (unter Anwendung von Fair Values).

HIGHLIGHTS

Following the capital increase the Company focused its activities on realising previously identified investment opportunities. In the course of the third quarter two new direct deals and numerous commitments to third party private equity funds were completed. As a result, the investment grade increased by 26 percentage points to 76%.

The returns of the seasoned portfolio of private equity have exceeded expectations. The AIG Asian Opportunity Fund («AOF»), the Schroder Funds as well as The Cinven Fund II were the main contributors. AOF sold its stake in Hansol to Korea Telecom. The Cinven Fund II sold its stake in General Healthcare. General Healthcare operates 42 private acute care hospitals and 11 psychiatric clinics. Among the positions Schroder sold was its last tranche of Charles Vögele Holding, a leading Swiss clothing retailer. Ririlux SA, a Swiss based manufacturer of high-end zippers. A portfolio company in one of the larger funds was experiencing difficulties in securing the additional capital required to continue its rapid growth pace and management believes the liquidity crisis has permanently impaired the portfolio company. The position has therefore been written down entirely.

The Company concluded two direct investments in the third quarter: Universal Pictures Escape («UPE») and Advanced Medicine («AMI»). Located in Orlando, Florida, UPE is comprised of two major theme parks – Universal Studios Florida and Islands of Adventure as well as an associated nightlife and restaurant complex, City Walk. AMI is a leading pre-revenue bio-pharmaceutical company that has developed an innovative and cost-efficient approach to drug discovery. AMI focuses on altering known compounds in the following niches: post-operative pain, neuropathic pain, asthma, bacterial infection and urinary incontinence.

The Company has committed funds to 25 US and Western European leveraged buyout and venture capital funds which were warehoused by AIG for up to 2 years. The total commitments for these funds amount to 80 million US dollars. Approximately a third of the commitments have been drawn down. The Company additionally committed 35 million Euro to CapVest Equity Partners, a fund that seeks to provide growth capital to European entrepreneurs and middle-market companies. Industry focus is set on telecommunications, services and leisure. APEN took a founding equity stake in a Swiss investment company: A & A Venture. A & A Venture targets early stage companies in Europe and the US. The industry focus is set on communication, technology and life sciences.

The Company's Net Asset Value (applying fair values) increased 4.8% to CHF 136.90 per share for the third quarter. The main drivers were the excellent performance of the seasoned private equity fund portfolio and the strengthening of the US Dollar. The share price of CHF 164.00 at quarter end was 8.6% higher than midyear and 31.2% above the mark at inception in October 1999. The premium at quarter end amounted to 19.8% (applying fair values).
